

This list is a constantly updating list, and you can peak into my nearly uncontrollable urge archiving habit. Some might be only able to be understood by my brain with how I archive it as I have a bit of a system on how or why I archive stuff, but I'm sure nearly everyone should be able to understand most of the context to the majority of these. I have far more drama archives than just this, but this one was so long it needed its own dedicated google docs.

IMPORTANT SMALL NOTE!

Not all of this is about harassment. This is an entire timeline from the very start to the current day. I see some people misconstrued what I said on the tweet sharing it, so I am making the clarification here.

The early years is lacking, I will get back to it, and find more of it

WARNING FOR STREAMERS!!

I did not mark all the stuff as NSFW/NSFL. There became a time where I started getting a bit too grossed out to the point I started doing that. But not all the stuff is marked as they should. Precede with caution.

Defining Harassment: While I typically have a very high bar for what is actually harassment, we are going to drastically lower the bar from my personal standards of harassment to match the bar that people say the narrative of "trans people on average get more harassment online" which is suppose to be read as individual trans people get harassed on an individual bases far more than cis people. Which their standard is when it's at least a single tweet in which they insult them, make accusations against them, label them as something negative, saying what they support when explicitly stated to be the opposite, a stochastic terrorist level of post where the conclusion may or may not say to do something but can be concluded or encouraged to do it, or say label what they are doing with pejoratives instead of just saying what happens. An example of the previous statement includes but not limited to... One that wouldn't be harassment is saying buying the game gives money to JKR who in which I believe has done very negative things for the LGBTQ+ or the trans community, I personally won't want to give my money or support towards something like this, so I won't watch. One that would be considered, "Buying the game makes you a transphobe because you are supporting transphobia, and bigotry by giving money to JKR, in doing so you are enabling a genocide against us, and trying to make us die." The example makes a very clear distinction of someone who wants to boycott but doesn't want to do harm to them, but wants them to understand where they are coming from. The other example shows very clear accusations on what they are by saying they are transphobic, says what they are supporting despite them (and what their channel is like) saying otherwise, and using pejoratives against them. The harassment doesn't have to be this bad to be labeled harassment, so long as it falls under a single line of the standards provided above.

2020: The tweet that started off JK Rowelings transphobia career (I will be updating and finding the other tweets that had her "Transphobic" but as of currently, just having these and will look for the other ones later.

<https://archive.ph/4DggL>

<https://archive.ph/OxRrk>

<https://archive.ph/sKHnO> Little future added thing

(The rest will be either HWL or about tweets about JKR pertaining to HWL, or people in the situations pertaining to HWL. The screenshots by themselves do not support either or side, but act merely as a documentation on the matter of an ever growing list. Block my main all you want. I use my alt to find this. It's why a lot of people who have me blocked are still on here)

I will be re-organizing it all in the future to get an accurate timeline, and a better grouping

2022: (Showing that the harassment took place, and was very common before these "Right-Wing psyop" conspiracy theory)

Pikamee

<https://archive.ph/ml3Va> (This archive is specifically to show the original link. Meaning as others like to say it happened on feb 7th, it actually all started on feb 6th) She references stuff like this in her “Playing a game doesn’t mean I’m supporting something specific” tweet, so she is either talking about this tweet, or other tweets like it. While this doesn’t mean this is everything, and all the “harassment”, it does show it is hard to prove as the OG tweet was deleted and not archived, so we can’t go through and easily see each and everyone of them. Not to mention a lot in here have either privated after going after stuff came to light, and some just deleted hoping people wouldn’t see. Making a real scope on how much happened literally impossible.

(reference here <https://archive.ph/QhcC4> )

Here is a bit of a list of stuff, with the ghostbin. While not all are harassment, it’s a mix of the two statements. Harassment and the others that were saying “Playing/Buying this means you support JKR and all the evil stuff she does”
